

CHEF RUBBER PRESENTS

CREEPY CREATIONS

with CHEF CHARITY

Once upon a dreary night,
Chef Charity and Chef Rubber wrought this eerie fright!

Possessed by
her imaginings,
she fetched sorbitol
and glycerine,
colorants and gelatin,
moulds and tools
from the bin.

Through the night, wide awake, knowing well what she must make,
of this a drop, of that a flake,
and lo behold - A SLITHERING SNAKE!

Now airbrush
carefully at hand,
oozing slimes did
she command.

Every pass begat
her plan.

Her smile shone
wicked,
wide
and grand.

With such horrors in her wake,
with no chance beyond her take, and every autumn tree to shake, who can dream what next she'll make?

Here's vexation unforetold-boney fingers from a mould.

And as to render all hearts cold,
NOW SPIDER LEGS ARE IN THE FOLD!?

With impish
brush and
liquid hues,
she next applied
some grievous
wounds.

Swiping,
wiping,
dabbing,
and soon-
the cake was morbidly
festooned!

Though
not yet
destined for the tomb.

Twas time to paint another layer,
to stoke the gloom and the despair!

With screaming skulls she decorated a nest where hungry spiders waited!

At last she pondered a fitting topper.
And vowed not to let propriety stop her.

Reaching forth in a murky vault
she retrieved her trusted isomalt.

So was born this chap called Walt.
Grim indeed, but not his fault.

And now the final wretched touch,
some gruesome slime, but not too much.

How does she make the green slime stay?
Why, just a mist of Magic Freeze Spray!

Ah yes, there's one last thing to knowin dark of night, this slime glows!

HAPPY HALLOWEEN
